The Year of the Feast!

This year heralds the return of the legendary King's Feast of Earthly Delights. The magnificent new King's Arms Hall presents a six-course, gourmet banquet of tantalizing foods, uplifting spirits and tempting desserts. The menu includes a bounty of fresh fruits, cheeses and home-baked bread, Roasted Boar, Piquant Grilled Quail, Sorbet of Pomegranate and Lime, and Regal Nut Pye. This sumptuous repast is served by attentive wenches and accompanied by a rousing, two hour show featuring some of the King's finest minstrels, magicians, jugglers, jesters, dare-devils and belly dancers. Seatings are every Saturday and Sunday at 11 a.m. or 2 p.m. and Feast tickets are by reservation only. For Festival day openings, check at the King's Arms reservation desk (Booth #302) or call in advance: 1-800-451-9198 (Mon. - Fri., 9-5)

All The Faire's A Feast!

For those unable to attend the Feast of Earthly Delights, despair not! Food lovers will find temptation at every turn. The truly adventurous may dare to complete King Henry's Walking Feast; it features his favorite food from every corner of the Festival. Queen's Pantry: Scotch Egg; King Henry's Table: Roasted Corn; Colors of the Sun (#17): Fresh Fruit Stick; La Fiesta: Beef or Banana Empanadas; Black Forest Inn: Wiener Schnitzel; Rogue's Rendezvous: Curly French Fries; Sherwood's Sumptuous Spread: Apple Dumplings with Iced Cream; Georgianno's Village: Hand-made Pizza; Captain's Galley: Char-broiled Turkey Legs or Pavlo's Greek Salad; Musketeer's Banquet: Steak on a Stake or Muffaletta Sandwich; King's Beer Garden: Escargot; Bohemian Bounty: Sesame Chicken; Polish Crown Pub: Rakami Grilled Shrimp; The Pavilion (#201): Fresh Brewed Cappuccino and Henry's Prayleen Fudge.

Also New in '95!

Joining the ever popular Ded Bob on the Player's Podium stage will be the dynamic Gypsy dance and drum troupe; Fireheart. The Castle Theatre hosts the Dangerous Comedy of Cliff Hanger, who will tempt fate with his blind-folded "Walk of Death" tight-rope walk. Master Cooper Keith Bowman, demonstrates the almost lost art of handcrafting wooden spoons, butter churns and canteens at shoppe #306 directly across from the glassblower's shoppe. The Tournament Field will host a Royal Cannon Contest at 2:00 p.m. and a beheading at 4:30 p.m.. Will Queen Anne Boleyn lose her lovely head?

General Information:

- First Aid is located on the east side of the Dragonslayer building, near the Festival entrance.
- Security, under the direction of Sheriff Bill Pendley, is provided by uniformed constables who continually rove the grounds. At least one is always stationed at the exit gate at the front of the Festival.
- Lost Children and Adults should meet at the Information Booth just inside the Festival entrance.
- Restrooms or "Privies" are located throughout the village. All provide drinking water. Consult your Festival map.
- Phones are located on either side of the exit gate at the front of the Festival and at all privies.

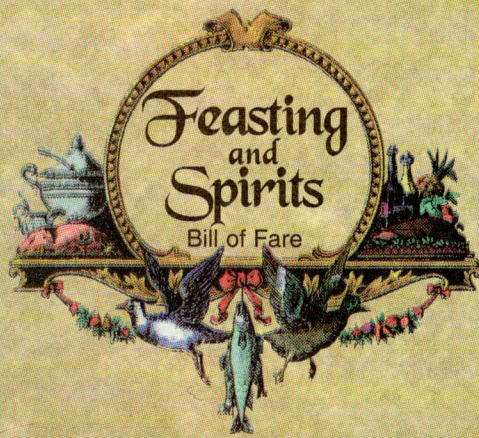

Welcome To The Texas Renaissance Festival

The year is 1536. The Year of the Feast. King Henry VIII has decreed a fantastical feast for all the senses at New Market Village to honor the French Ambassador and his retinue. The French have come to sign an important treaty and collect £50,000 in English gold (raised via a hefty new tax) required to wring a critical concession from grasping, vicious King Francis 1st. The English care not for the Treaty, the Tax nor the Treacherous French, but all are agog over the day's festivities including the Feast of Earthly Delights, The Human Chess Match and the four o'clock Joust for England's Bride. Tongues are wagging over Queen Anne's wondrously warm welcome of the sinister French Ambassador and suspect that her fixation on all things French may stem from her extreme displeasure over King Henry's gift of a locket to one of her ladies, Mistress Jane Seymour... And with old Queen Katherine's furious efforts to get her beloved Jane out of Queen Anne's "Scandalous Household". Surely Royal Fireworks are in the offing. But if anyone can juggle treacherous allies, scandalized subjects, battling queens and £50,000 in gold, tis His Majesty, King Henry VIII.

Children of the Realm will thrill to over 40 unique games and rides scattered throughout our fantasy kingdom. Sherwood Forest in particular is devoted to entertaining the entire family. There, in addition to the Amazing Maze, King's Swing, and Elephant and Camel rides, the young will be entertained by the Storyteller Brother Donald, a troupe of gentle fairies, Gregory the Dragon's silly puppet shows and Robin Hood and his band of Merry Men.
